Demo Conclaves Set Precincts Name Delegates May 9

Voters from the county's 25 precincts will select delegates to the county convention at the usual voting places at 10 a.m. Monday May 9, it was announced by Joseph H. Benveniste, chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee.

In accordance with a resolution of the State Executive Committee adopted in Jackson April 15, the precinct delegates will meet at the Courthouse the following Monday, May 16, at 10 a.m. to select a county Democratic executive committee and delegates to the state convention at Jackson June 30.

At the state convention presidential electors will be elected as well as the state Democratic Executive Committee, a national committeeman and woman.

A district caucus will be conducted in Hattiesburg June 3 to select five delegates to the national convention, each to have a one-half vote, together with three alternates. Mississippi will have 46 delegates and 22 alternates. Five delegates will be chosen from each of the six congressional districts, each having a half vote. A total of 23 votes will be carried by the state delegation. National Committeeman Hugh Clayton, New Albany, and National Committeewoman Mrs. Louise Gore, Sturgis, each have a half vote. Two delegates at large will be chosen at the state convention.

Bidwell Adam, Gulfport attorney and chairman of the state executive committee, announced that Gov. Ross Barnett will be the keynote speaker at the state convention. He will be introduced by Circuit Judge Tom Brady of Brookhaven, an ardent States' righter. Adam said the effect of

County GOP Meeting Called

Hancock County's Republican Party convention will be at 2 p.m. May 14 at the Courthouse to elect delegates and alternate delegates to the 1960 Mississippi Republican Party State Convention June 11 in Jackson and select a county executive committee to serve for the next four years, according to County Chairman Wilson Webb.

Appointed by the state committee, Webb noted no delegates were elected four years ago, but that the county was one of three in Mississippi which supported

Sheriff Announces Firearm Registration

All privately owned firearms in the county and the amount of ammunition on hand must be registered at the sheriff's office, Sheriff Gerald Price announced today.

Registration of firearms is required under penalty of section 8621-8630 of the state code, he said. This includes all pistols, revolvers, machine guns, submachine guns, rifles and similar weapons.

IN NEW HEALTH CENTER - Unpacking equipment in the new county health center on Dambor Avenue are Wayne Allison, sanitation supervisor, and Mrs. Paul Miller and Mrs. Eugene Ling, nurses. A dedication of the new center is planned later but the new offices are now open to the public.

ST. JOSEPH MAY QUEEN AND MAIDS - Sophomore Eileen Plunkett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Plunkett of Bay St. Louis, was named to reign over the May 7 St. Joseph festival after final balloting yesterday. Maids from left are Sylvia Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Amberg of Mobile; Inez Favre, daughter of Mrs. A. G. Favre of Bay St. Louis; Queen Eileen; and Adrienne Ruck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ruck of New Orleans.

Dragline Goes To High Bidder

Bid of Allied Equipment Inc. of Jackson for $20,297 for supplying the county with a dragline to be used in District 2 was accepted at a recessed meeting of the Board of Supervisors Monday.

Only other bid was that of Southern Equipment Sales of Jackson for $18,000. Board attorney Sam L. Favre Jr. advised the members that the lowest or best bidder should be accepted according to law and members replied that the bid of Allied was best and more suitable to the county's use because of technical reasons.

The board received a summons to appear at 10 a.m. May 6 in the Chancellor's office at Gulfport to testify in a suit brought by J. Roland Weston to alter the plat of the town of Ansley.

The suit asks that the county vacate certain streets that are designated as such on the plat but have never been used and that the land described in the suit be reclassified as acreage. Weston owns the property adjoining the streets and will benefit from a reduction in taxes if the land is reclassified as acreage. The board has to approve the move and the Chancellor must execute a decree before it will become legal. Chancery Clerk Claiborne Ladner said. The board has not indicated whether it would approve.

'Mystery' Ship Only Stranded

A mystery derelict ship that had been reported spotted by a Coast Guard auxiliary (civilian) boat in the Bay of St. Louis Monday turned out to be an old, stranded hull, Coast Guard officials said Tuesday in New Orleans.

Investigation revealed the old wooden tug, Tuscaloosa, about 60 feet long, to be owned by A. C. Hutto, Gulfport real estate man. James L. Ward who sold the Tuscaloosa to Hutto, said it was being towed across the Bay in an attempt to bring it up the Wolf River when it became stuck on a bar. Hutto said there was no mystery about the boat, that it was stranded and they were waiting on a high tide.

Monday the New Orleans Coast Guard station said it re-

Vandals Strike Beach Again

Vandals struck twice during the past week causing serious damage to the municipal pier and beach playground. A $50 reward for information leading to the arrest of the persons involved has been posted by the Parks and Playground Commission, Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairman, announced.

Last Tuesday's damage had just been repaired when the vandals struck again Monday, Mrs. Tudury said. Posts and railing were torn off the pier causing a dangerous situation. All lights were shot out, she said, the bulbs costing $3.50 each and $10 for a man to climb the pole. Swings and see-saws, valued at $280 each, were broken.

Investigating officer Latham M. Garriga, city policeman, said Wednesday no arrests have been made but an automobile seen parked at the beach on both occasions is being sought.

Price Offers Aid In Marion Slaying

Sheriff Gerald Price announced today that he had offered all law enforcement facilities of this county Friday night after the ambush slaying of Marion County Sheriff J. V. Folsom.

Price was accompanied by Deputy Lander Necaise and Justice of the Peace Nollie Rhodes on his trip to Columbia, home of Sheriff Folsom. A floral offering from county law enforcement officials was sent to the funeral.

Murder charges have been filed against three Marion county bootleggers for the crime.

Named Sewerage, Water Systems Studied for Bay St. Louis

Another step toward construction of a sewerage system in Bay St. Louis was taken Thursday when Commission Council, Chamber of Commerce officials and businessmen met at City Hall with William E. Johnson, consulting engineer of Jackson, who studied the city's sewerage and water problems in 1955.

Jaycees Study Little League

The possibility of a Jaycee organized Little League baseball program for the general community will be recommended to the general membership by the community development committee, according to Lionel Seller, chairman.

Plans call for a volunteer personnel to coach and manage the various teams which will be sponsored by a local business, organization or individual. Play is to start June 1 and continue through August.

Anyone interested in sponsoring a team, donating equipment or assisting in the program in any way is urged to contact Seller or Larry Mantray, Dr. Frank Schmidt, Don Luvich, Sidney Woods or Andre Arceneaux, committee members.

Veterinarian Plans Series of Visits

Dr. Stewart Picaume scheduled two visits to Hancock County for the purpose of examining dogs and horses for rabies.

His first visit is May 4 and May 5, 7:30 a.m., residence on U.S. Highway 90, agent's office, Bay St. Louis. His second visit is May 5 and 12, 8 a.m., at Gulfview, Lakeshore, Clermont association building.

He has already made visits in St. Rosa, Harmony Church, Catibola and Kila and indicated he will be available for return trips if there is sufficient demand.

Waveland residents are particularly urged to make use of his services in view of the recently enacted ordinance there calling for inoculation of all hounds.

Council agreed to get a bonding expert to analyze the problem and suggest feasible methods of raising the necessary funds. Johnson, who has already prepared a map showing the number of feet above sea level in various parts of the city, agreed to divide the city into four or five geographical districts.

It is hoped the necessary information will be ready in time for the June 7 congressional Democratic primary when coastal cities will also vote on the half cent sales tax increase. Mayor John A. Scalfie said approximately $29,000 had been received last year from the present half cent tax and probably another $29,000 would be raised if voters approved the additional half cent.

Johnson recalled he had prepared a brochure for the city in 1955. He said he could not give any accurate figures on cost of a sewerage and water works system without further study but estimated it would be around $2 million. He doubted the city could support such a bond issue with its present property assessment, noting experience in other cities indicated that it was much more economical and feasible to construct a new water system along with the sewerage disposal. Cities such as Prentiss, Clintona, Fayette and Rolling Fork had solved the problem by dividing the towns into geographical districts and installing the systems in one district at a time.

The best method of retiring the bonds, he said, is by assessing property owners in the district a fixed amount per front foot as an initial fee, to be paid in 10 years, and a monthly service charge when water and sewerage is connected. There would be water meters, he said, and most cities charge an additional 50 per cent for sewerage.

The system advocated by Johnson, and used by similarly located cities, involves a sewerage lagoon that flows into a stream. It is also known as a sewerage oxidation pond, he continued, and there is no odor except in cases where there is a freeze and then only for a few hours.

Chances are remote that that happening here, he said. Size of the pond would be determined by Ninety-one pints of blood were secured from about 120 persons who offered to give at the drawing conducted yesterday afternoon at the Bay St. Louis Youth Center by the Hancock County Blood Bank.

Eugene Dillman, president, and members of the blood bank expressed their appreciation to all who helped in any way to make the drawing a success, saying they were heartened by the many new faces who showed up. About 25 persons were turned down, principally for medical reasons. Not So Dumb

Mississippi's Senate on Tuesday passed what is referred to as a bone dry liquor bill. The bill makes a felony not only of the sale and transportation of spirits but also of its possession and directs the governor to use the state's National Guard to enforce the prohibition against shipping liquor into Mississippi.

One would think the dries would have enthusiastically supported this law and some did, but some were smarter. For instance, Senator Ollie Knight of Amory, chairman of the Senate temperance committee and ardent dry, opposed the bill on the floor of the Senate saying "I think you are fooling yourselves if you think this will dry up the state. The bill was introduced to get whiskey in Mississippi."

Senator Knight remembered Oklahoma's experience and possibly the beloved Will Roger's remark that Oklahomans would vote dry "as long as they can stagger to the polls". He fears the same for Mississippi.

We hope his fears are justified. With due regard to some legitimate arguments of the dries, the Echo thinks there is no disputing that legal liquor is better than illegal liquor, and wonders when the professional dry will be for temperance and prefer other companions than bootleggers.

Another Headache

The racial incidents in Biloxi last Sunday point up a problem for Bay St. Louis. While there is a beach, Gulf-side, just south-west of Waveland that can be used by Negroes, it is not a public beach. It is owned by a Methodist organization. The Seminary also has a swimming place, but again it is not tax supported.

Bay St. Louis has one public beach and it, we think correctly, is restricted to whites. Nevertheless, unless the city also provides a place for negroes where they can swim and sun themselves, a major argument against the Warren Supreme Court's black Monday decision is without foundation.

Abolishing our municipal pier and beach will satisfy the supreme court's edict, but these facilities are needed. While perhaps not entirely within the supreme court's ruling, a municipal beach for negroes, who pay taxes also, should remove what we think is a justifiable complaint.

Such a course may not satisfy a trouble maker or the NAACP, but the Echo believes it would take away any legitimate complaint and that our county's colored citizens would be better off.

In Trouble?

One of this country's more competitive industries is the wearing apparel industry. It is also the nation's fourth largest employer according to the Apparel Industry Committee on Imports.

What brings the matter up at this time is the committee's effort to combat foreign competition, where wages are lower, through a so-called wage equalization principle in our import laws. According to Donald Cooper, chairman of the committee, some such measure must be adopted or the industry in the United States must go out of business or move abroad.

This editor is opposed to import duties in principle. He doesn't know enough about the apparel industry to have an opinion on whether some tariff arrangement for this group's benefit should or should not be enacted. He does know, however, that hundreds of thousands of Americans depend on the industry for a livelihood. The industry's problem is worth looking into.

Sewerage

The number of people served, one acre being necessary for 200 people in domestic use but commercial plants and public buildings or schools requiring more.

A. G. Dantagan, Chamber of Commerce president, suggested that the area north of U. S. 90 be designated as the first "guinea pig" operation because it was the fastest growing area and a new subdivision is being constructed.

Johnson advised that the first district be selected on a geographical basis. He noted that once a district had been supplied with sewerage, residents of the other areas would realize the benefits and would not be hard to sell on the project. With reduction in insurance rates and so forth, he said, home owners would actually save money in the long run. The system has been in use in Germany for many years, he said, and the ponds are used for commercial fish ponds.

Mayor John Scalfidi said the city is growing rapidly and something has to be done about sewerage; that the water in the Bay near the shore had shown an increase in bacteria which was concurred with by Dr. Wesley McFarland.

BEAUTY TIPS

MERCEDES' BEAUTY SALON

HATS vs. HAIR. Few women make their own hats. They attempt to style their own hair. This always surprises me. The way your hair looks is the most important part of your appearance. As one of my teachers often says, you can remove a hat, but you can't very well remove your hair. When you snip away at your hair you're flirting with trouble. It takes a skilled hairdresser to properly shape your hair, trimming it to smart, smooth, well-groomed lines. And it stands to reason that it takes a professional beautician to give a truly fine, lasting permanent wave.

KNOWLEDGE TAKES OVER. You see, only chemicals curl the hair. A cosmetologist spends many months learning to use these chemicals properly. That's why your hairdresser knows your wave so carefully, making certain the curling chemicals remain on the hair just the correct number of minutes.

SCIENCE STEPS IN. Little processing in a permanent wave produces no wave at all. Overprocessing actually harms the hair, takes away its elasticity, leaves split ends and a frizzled hair. Next time you want a permanent, consult an expert. Call HO-5202, MERCEDES BEAUTY SALON, CLERMONT HARBOR. You'll be thrilled with the difference a professional permanent makes. And isn't it nice to know it will last for months?

Miss Perrault Becomes Bride of E.M. Brignac jr.

Miss Janet Ann Perrault became the bride of Edmond Maurice Brignac Jr. in a ceremony Sunday morning at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in New Orleans, with the Rev. Adrian Mercer, assistant pastor at Our Lady of the Gulf Church, Bay St. Louis, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arlington Perrault of New Orleans. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brignac sr. of Bay St. Louis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of magnolia white antique silk tulle and reembodyered Alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a Sabrina neckline and long fitted sleeves of lace. A fold of tulle encircled the waistline and terminated in a bow in the back. The full harem styled skirt fell into a chapel train. Her floor length veil of silk tulle was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of cascade calla lilies. Her only jewelry was a cross and chain belonging to the groom's mother.

Miss Louis Lemarie, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her attendants were the Misses Alice Bradford, Anna Clare Culver, Mary Wetzel and Mrs. Edward J. Martin Jr. Their frocks were of silk organza in peacock blue over Nile green, the bodices featuring deep V necklines and full puffed sleeves. Their bouffant circular skirts were finished at the waist with wide contour belts of peacock organza. They wore top crowns of spring flowers and carried garden baskets of assorted spring flowers.

Wallace Burns was best man. Groomsmen were Albert Brignac, brother of the groom, Joseph Perrault Jr., Claude L. Kohler, Cyril J. Fayard, Donald J. Ladner and Robert P. Guilbault.

At the reception following Mrs. Perrault received in an ice blue silk gown with matching accessories topped by a sapphire blue pillbox with ice blue roses. Miss Brignac selected a royal blue silk-satin dress with beige flowered cloche and beige accessories. Their flowers were white phenylopsis orchids.

For traveling, the bride chose a black Italian silk dress with chanel jacket of natural Italian silk. Her sister, Miss Norma Garcia, was maid of honor while Miss Gloria Ladner, the groom's sister, was bridesmaid. Their floor-length gowns were an orchid shade of tulle and organza. The honor attendant carried white carnations and pink rose buds while Miss Ladner's flowers were pink carnations and white rosebuds.

Shoulda Gone Fishin' Softballers Pick Staff For Season

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of fish. It is the theme song of this area — not only young, or men either. Over the weekend the Keys took on the appearance of Canal and Bourbon; all that was missing were traffic lights and policemen.

Fishing is good all over and from all indications this should be one of the best years in a long time. Perfect weather, not too warm and no rain, added to the pleasure. Good catches were reported from nearly every point, salt and fresh water.

A few persons called in asking what a crappie is, the only world record fish caught in Mississippi that we mentioned a few weeks ago so perhaps more are interested. It is a sunfish better known in these parts as sac-a-lait, probably a Louisiana Cajun expression. It is narrow, deep-bodied and fan-finned, greenish and silvery flecked with green-black spots. It is found in muddy, weed-choked waters and all kinds of lakes, ponds, bayous and large or sluggish streams and is usually still-fished with worms or minnows but they will take a surface fly or shallow-running lure. Their mouths are very tender. They suck down a fly peculiarly and a quick strike will take it away from them so take it easy. It is a highly prized fish in the New Orleans vicinity.

Bernie Piazza and two New Orleans friends, John Stubbert and Herbert Carver, left home Saturday afternoon and didn't return until 3 a.m. Sunday but they pleaded not guilty and offered 42 flounder in evidence. They allege a spearing party at Cat Island in John's 17-foot hull with a 50-horse motor — a distance of about 14 miles. Water was perfect, Bernie says.

Brewster Mollere got two trout off the seawall in Waveland Sunday, weighing about a pound each. One would have weighed at least four pounds if he had been fat. Brewster says — a shark had evidently bitten off his tail and he was starving to death. Some tall, Brewster.

Another Waveland seawall fisherman, Cornelius Herlihy, was seen dragging home a string early in the week.

In the fresh water department, Elliot Casanova says the water in Pearl River looks terrible but he has caught the limit every time he has tried and that has been often last week (lives in Logtown). He has been getting green trout and bream on flies and a new rod. Says the fish aren't paying any attention to the looks of the water.

R. J. Ladner of the Thrifty Furniture Shop reports that Harold Zimmerman and Buck Ladner were at Half Moon Sunday and the water is fine although the trout were a little slow. He and Gene Charbonnet of Lakeshore are planning a trip this weekend.

The gasoline lantern flounder brigade was out in full force Monday night. David Rutherford and Mike Lang were among the many successful ones.

Joyce Prexy Mike Haas was caught doing his fishing in Alabama. He attended a family reunion in Clanton and got in some fresh water fishing with father-in-law Earl Wingo. They baited trout and cats using worms and minnows.

The A.C. Mitchells entertained the Ray Stewarts of Piquette Saturday at the Keys landing 14 trout, some weighing two pounds, on plugs. Okay, Margie, we won't mention anything about Sunday.

Louis Moreau of Court Street, one of the RR bridge's best customers during the summer, was seen with a nice catch Monday.

Only two Bay golfers and one from the Pass went to hospitable Sunkist G. C. for the Scotch two-ball foursome event Sunday. All three won prizes with boss and Mrs. boss winning top honors for low net (65) and coming in second for low gross (60). The other

If there's one "coverage" that should never be out of date, it's your insurance coverage. Property values have been going up for years. As a result, your house is probably worth more today than when you bought it. If you had not increased your insurance to cover this added value — and your house were destroyed — you could take a big loss. Make sure you're fully protected. Speed Boat Regatta Eyed Tentative plans for a speed boat regatta, similar to the one sponsored last year, were made by the St. Stanislaus. The matter was tabled until the next business meeting.

President Andre Arceneaux announced that it was not necessary for members bringing guests to make reservations at the May 11 annual All-Sports Banquet that it would be on a first-come, first-served basis. About 30 members enjoyed a color film of this year's Sugar Bowl activities including the football game, Balled shrimp and other refreshments were served.

CHEVROLET
OVER BACK-COUNTRY ROADS AT 45 WITH A SKY-HIGH LOAD OF TIMBER

Chevy middleweight shows the big rigs how it's done!

That's a 6303 medium-duty Chevrolet powered by a 293-cu.-in. V8. But there's sure nothing medium-duty about the load. Mr. J. E. Blankinship, Arkansas logging contractor, says both of his tractor-spring 6303's "move along at 40 to 50 miles per hour with 55,000 pounds gross weight and maintain a 5-trip-a-day schedule with no trouble at all." Figure the money you save when you've got a medium-duty truck that can cover 30,000 back-country miles a year with a high-tonnage load!

We've never seen anything like the amount of praise truck owners are heaping on Chevy's new torsion spring suspension. Owners like the fact the truck handles a whole lot easier, can move faster off the road without beating the driver to death and shaking loose all the sheet metal. They like the idea of extra thousands of miles before trade-in! . . . Drive a '60 Chevy just once. It's a whole new experience.

(Chevy middleweight averages 200 miles of back roads a day hauling timber out of the woods and delivering it to the mill at Crossett, Arkansas.)
